NEW BANKING SYSTEM TO BETTER CONDITIONS

Business Improvement Looked For With Release of Millions

BANKS ARE BENEFITTED

Reserve Fund Demands Lessened—Accommodations to Carry Out Provisions

Business conditions in Washington county as well as in the entire country are expected to be alleviated by the opening of the regional banks under the new currency act. Millions of dollars that have heretofore lain in the vaults of the banks over the country are now released, and may be used to relieve the money shortage all over the country. Banks that have heretofore been compelled to keep on reserve $150,000 will now only be required to keep about half that sum on reserve, and the other half may be used for loans.

Under the old law banks in second class bank districts, such as Charleroi were compelled to keep in reserve 15 per cent of their deposits. Under the new act they are only required to keep in reserve 12 per cent of demand deposits, which are deposits that may be drawn out without 30 days notice—commonly called checking accounts—and 5 per cent of time deposits, which are those not subject to check for a period of 30 days. Figures show that approximately only a little over half the reserve required under the old law is required under the new act. A bank with deposits of $1,000,000 required under the old law a reserve of $150,000, where under the new law it only requires $85,000.

Under the new law the banks have 36 months in which to adjust themselves to the requirements of the law. At the end of that time it must be either carried in the Federal Reserve bank or in the vault. In first class bank districts the reserve was formerly 25 per cent of their deposits. Under the new law much more money will be released than in the second class districts.

In some sections of this country prompt accommodations will have the effect of stimulating business. Collections have been slow during the last few months, but with plenty of money available it is expected that business men will be able to make their collections and that there will be a general increase in business.

The Federal Reserve board has issued a circular in which conditions are discussed. The circular states that the Federal reserve banks have a two-fold function. It says:

"They should extend credit facilities particularly where abnormal conditions now prevailing have created emergencies demanding prompt accommodations and on the other hand, they must protect the gold holdings of this country in order that such holdings may remain adequate to meet demands that may be made upon them. While credit facilities should be liberally extended in some parts of the country it would be advisable to proceed with caution in districts

Gov. Tener Visitor Here

Stops in Charleroi for Short Time on Way to Monessen Elks' Gathering

Gov. John K. Tener was in Charleroi, his home, a short while Monday afternoon, but not many people knew it. Gov. Tener arrived on the noon train, went to the Arthur hotel for lunch and in the afternoon was at Monessen to take part in the exercises of dedication of the new Elks' home. He returned to Charleroi after that and spent a short time with friends here before leaving on the 5:50 train for Pittsburgh. The governor was too busy a man to much more than greet those of his friends who saw him and had little to say concerning his official duties.

NOTES THE HOUR AND DROPS TO FLOOR DEAD

Curtis C. Carson, Formerly of North Charleroi, Dies Unexpected at Donora--Was on Way Home From Brief Visit Here

"Just ten minutes to ten," remarked Curtis S. Carson to his brother, Reese Carson as he stepped into a pump station at Donora on his way home from Charleroi Monday night. Reese greeted him, then a moment later turned to behold his brother lying on the floor dead.

Mr. Carson was in Charleroi Monday evening until some time after 9 o'clock meeting friends and conferring with local Democratic leaders concerning the postmastership appointment at Donora, for which he was a candidate. He left by street car, going to Black Diamond and then to Donora. Never had he appeared in better health. He alighted from the car at Eighth street to visit short with his brother who was employed at the pump station there.

Reese Carson was preparing to start the pump and completed that task only to turn about and find his brother a corpse. Death was due to leakage of the heart.

Mr. Carson is survived by his widow and one daughter, Doris, of Donora. His father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Carson, of Fallowfield township, also survive together with five brothers and four sisters. The brothers are: Oscar and Russell Carson, of Charleroi; Reese Carson, of Donora; and Abraham and Mark Carson, of Fallowfield township. The sisters are: Mrs. Walter Carson, of Eighty Four; Mrs. Earl Nelson, of Speers; and Misses Alice and Luella Carson, of Fallowfield township.

Mr. Carson was a member of Charleroi lodge, No. 615, F. and A. M. He was well known in Charleroi and North Charleroi, having formerly lived in North Charleroi. His death comes as a complete surprise. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

Preceding the dedication ceremony an informal reception was held for Gov. Tener in the rooms of the home.

SHOOTING CONTEST AND QUOT MATCH FULL OF INTEREST

A shooting match and a quoit contest, both of which contained decidedly interesting features were held at the Charleroi baseball park Monday. The shooting contest, a live bird shoot according to the arrangements took place between Tim Wilson, of Charleroi, and a Mr. McFeeley, of Webster. Wilson won. He was given a handicap of three birds, and his score was 9 out of 12. McFeeley's record was 8 out of 15.

Following the shoot, William Feeney of Charleroi was challenged to a game of quoits by Ted Jones, of Webster. The first few games went all Jones' way, until the score stood 12 to 0. Then by pluck Mr. Feeney rapidly won until he finally beat out Jones by the score of 21 to 17.

Hurt in Fall is His Story

Charleroi Man Found Along Monessen Trolley Track
Nearly Dead

Tony Depolo, a laborer employed by the Charleroi Planting company received a bad cut on the head in Monessen Monday in an unknown manner. When found Monday afternoon about 2 o'clock he was lying along the street car track in an almost unconscious condition, and nearly frozen to death. He was taken to a doctor and five stitches put in his head.

Depolo stated that he fell Monday morning he went to Monessen to do some work. He complained of being sick and was told by the foreman to go home. He left and was not seen any more until found in the afternoon. At first it was thought that he had been assaulted and robbed, but he maintains that he fell.

STATION ROBBERY REPORTED

B. & O. Ticket Office at Washington Burglarized Monday

BRAZEN PERFORMANCE

For the second time in fifteen years thieves Monday broke into the Baltimore and Ohio ticket office at Washington and made way with considerable plunder.

The robbery was one of the boldest that has ever occurred in Washington occurring at the noon hour during the half hour absence of Agent W. D. Hancher at lunch. The thieves secured $56.25 and made a clean getaway. That they did not get more is due to the fact that but little money is kept at the station.

Officers at work on the case have four men under arrest one captured at Washington and three taken from a freight at Bruceton and it is believed developments today will go a considerable way toward clearing up the robbery.

Monday, as is the custom Hancher locked up the ticket office at 12:15 o'clock and went to lunch. He had the $56.25 in the locked money drawer and did not place it in the safe as he was to be gone but a short time and there were other railroad employees about the station. Hancher returned at 12:45 o'clock and immediately discovered the robbery.

Wagoner Infant Dies

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wagoner, of Monessen, is dead. Mr. and Mrs. Wagoner the parents are well known in Charleroi.

Assessed Value of Conception of Building Work Done

GOOD YEAR ANTICIPATED

Believed Operations Will Carried on Extensively Possibilities Suggested

Charleroi has not been behind the matter of improvements during the last year. According to Bureau Assessor J. L. Reeves, the assessed value of improvements made in the period is $82,600, and this is only of half the exact figure. It affords a good conception of the building operations carried on in the town.

Various new buildings have gone up, and several are in course of erection, that later will be of a much greater value. Among them are: Moose building on McKean street and the Fau building on Fallowfield. These this fall could only be assessed according to the amount of work done, or, in other words just improvements. A structure on Ten street likewise is being reared and has been counted. A number of buildings have gone up.

Those familiar with the building trades anticipate a good building year to come. Charleroi is becoming and more of a residence center, as good families are moving here. The road men and industrial men of the classes are looking toward Charleroi as a desirable community in which to live. The starting of the Benderville trolley line has opened up a good residence district, providing suitable ground for lots can be had at reasonable prices.

Forseeing the trend of development two industrial plants of promise, the Keystone Cut Glass company and the Charleroi Decorating company within the last year have erected and occupied buildings on Lincoln avenue extension. Several lots are yet available for building sites in Charleroi, and it is believed there will be a demand for them within a comparatively short time.

Among the possibilities in the building line the coming year will be the of a new passenger and freight depot on Sixth street and McKean street to be built by the Pittsburgh and Charleroi Street Railway company and the proposed new borough building, for which a site remains to be selected. Money for the latter will be obtained through the medium of a bond issue passed at the last election.

FARMERS HAVE ARRANGED FOR THREE INSTITUTES

A series of Farmer's Institutes will be held at Anity on November 18 and 19; Buffalo on November 20 and 21; and Ginger Hill on November 22 and 24. A number of instructors from other parts of the state will be present to join with the farmers of the locality in the discussion of topics relative to agriculture. These meetings are free and open to all, and there is no doubt the farmers of this county will avail themselves of the advantages to be gained by attending these meetings.

HOME FOR INSANE

Withdrawal of the petition of the ty poor directors recommending purchase of the Trinity Hall site Washington for a county insane hospital, in the face of much opposi-the county over, does not settle question of providing adequate accommodations for the mentally weak. is a need of an insane asylum Washington county, and action of the sort is necessary. In discuss-the project the Washington News the following to say:

As the court, in his instructions to grand jury pointed out, Western sylvania has no state insane hosal, which has made it necessary to id our insane patients to Dixmont. t Dixmont, to quote from the ric's statement, has a capacity of ut 600, though, according to the t report, nearly a thousand have m crowded into the institution.
As a result the court is constantly ing letters from Superintendent hinson, urging that no more be to Dixmont, as they cannot be ably be taken care of.

The county poor farms all over the ite have proven themselves unable provide sufficient care for the mentally afflicted. Washington county a few at the infirmary, but the most of them, numbering 227 are at Dixmont and other state institutions.
The Dixmont total from here is given at 146.

The court does not haggle the quesion, but goes right to the point with he declaration that the situation is ow such that there has got to be something done. Difference of opinion n whether the state or the county should provide the accommodations and bear the expense are acknowledged, but the court takes a stand for home rule, stating the belief that we can take care of the poor insane better than to send them off to the state, and at less expense than were the state to do it. An exception is made in cases of these criminally insane.

Conditions have come to such a pass that "something has to be done or the practice of peddling these patients around will still exist." And if it makes possible a savings to taxpayers of the county to care for the insane at home, which certainly appears to be the case, why any further delay? Why not put this savings policy into effect just as soon as possible. If one particular site is not acceptable, why not give immediate consideration to others.

NEW BANK SYSTEM

Not one, but every town and city in the United States should benefit from the operations of the new federal reserve banking system which went into effect on Monday. If the beliefs of those who carefully studied the system in advance work out, the system will serve as a stimulus to business, as well as a protection generally. Concerning the new law the Pittsburgh Press has the following to say editorially:

The federal reserve bank system is unlike anything we have ever had before, and the ablest and most influential bankers are the readiest to acknowledge that its effects upon the national prosperity are likely to be swift and far-reaching.

When the legislation providing for this reform was pending in congress it was desperately opposed by certain men. Will it be banking institutions for the reason that one of the prime objects and chief efforts of the reform is to take the country's money power out of the hands of a half dozen Wall street bankers who had taken the place of the government.

This is the one feature of the reform which means more to the nation than any other. It destroys the money trust. It is a blow up the monopoly of credit, with the result that whereas formerly the banking reserves of the country, aggregating hundreds of millions of dollars, were massed in Wall street and those used by the Morgan-Rockefeller group of bankers in their private speculations and promotions, they will now be spread throughout the country, being deposited in twelve great regional reserve banks and lent under government control and direction not to speculators but to merchants and manufacturers, who have in other years frequently been forced to shut down for lack of bank accommodations while Wall street gamblers and Chicago wheat pit cornerers were getting the money.

The new system is safer because it puts the banking system of the country more directly and more wholly under government control and supervision. And it is better because it will promote actual commercial and industrial enterprise in all sections.
What the favored speculators and pro-motors in Wall street lose in power

Value of Cool Nights.

Heat waves, says Edwin C. Martia author of "Our Own Weather," prove disastrous directly in proportion as hot nights are combined with hot days.
For a number of days successively the heat may mount during the day to extraordinary heights, but if the intervening nights turn comparatively cool the number of prostrations and deaths will be much less than under a continually lower temperature continuing with scant respite throughout the day and night. Thus any situation that is a clear advantage during the presence of a hot wave. It is also an advantage to be insured to hereafter. The sun, which is the cause of the heat, is the cause of the heat of the North American people more than discomfort to the people of the South.

ONLY THE HEAD USED

PECULIAR GAME OF "FOOTBALL" IN SOUTH AMERICA.

Among the Odd Things Observed by Theodore Roosevelt in His Travels This Sport Is Noted as Worth Recording.

Well, these Perfect Indians enthusiastically play football with their heads. The game is not only native to them, but I have never heard of read of its being played by any other tribe or people. They use a light hollow rubber ball, of their own manufacture. It is circular and about eight inches in diameter. The players are divided into two sides, and stationed much as in association football, and the ball is placed on the ground to put in play, as in football. Then a player runs forward, throws himself flat on the ground and bounces the ball toward the opposite side. This first butt, when the ball is on the ground, never lifts it much and it rolls and bounces toward the opponents. One of two of the latter run toward it; one throws himself flat on his face and butts the ball back. Usually this butt hits it, and it flies back in a curve well up in the air, and an opposite player, rushing toward it, catches it on his head with such a swing of his brawny neck, and such precision and address, that the ball bounces back through the air as a football would after a drop kick. If the ball flies off to one side or the other it is brought back, and again put into play.
Often it will be sent to and fro a dozen times, from head to head, until finally it rises with such a sweep that it passes far over the heads of the opposite players and descends behind them. Then shrill, rolling cries of good-humored triumph arise from the victors, and the game instantly begins again with fresh zest.

There are, of course, no such rules as in a specialized ball game of civilization, and I saw no disputes. There may be eight or ten, or many more players on each side. The ball is never touched with the hands or feet, or with anything except the top of the head. It is hard to decide whether to wonder most at the dexterity and strength with which it is hit or butted with the head, as it comes down through the air, or at the reckless speed and skill with which the players throw themselves headlong on the ground to return the ball if it comes low down. Why they do not grind off their noses I cannot imagine. Some of the players hardly ever failed to catch and return the ball if it came in their neighborhood, and with such a vigorous toss of the head that it often Seine Broke; Fish Got Away.

After having been for eight weeks on the Cape Shore fishing grounds off Nova Scotia seeking mackerel the fishing schooner Veda McKown reached the fish pier with only 5,000 large, fresh and 127 barrels of salted mackerel in her hold.

Crew members complained of the hard luck encountered during the trip, and after the schooner had tied up circulated that the breaking of a seine cost them about $2,000. The schooner encountered a large school of mackerel off Canso. The seine boat was quickly launched and within a short time had circled the school with the seine. However, the seine broke as it was pulled, and all except the 5,000 mackerel which the schooner brought escaped.

The fishermen estimated that there were fully twenty thousand fish in the school, and each of the 15,000 that got away would have been worth 15 cents at the fish pier, that being the price quoted for large, fresh mackerel.

Monocle as a Courage Inspirer.

Jack Heaton Armstrong, an aristocratic young Englishman, has just returned home from Albania with a story of the awe in which his monocle was held by the unsophisticated soldiers of the Morea, while he was in command of a field gun used against the rebels.

Armstrong, who is a brother of the private secretary of Prince William, set out from Messia with Chief Frank for the relief of the prince, then believed in his cause. Frank had 2,000 men and one field gun. Armstrong commanded the gun.

No matter how hot the fire, the soldiers never deserted the gun, which was aimed and fired by the monocled Englishman. As they had never seen a monocle before they thought it essential to arrange, or a kind of range finder. Armstrong did not dispel their fictions.

News on the Ocean.

The first transatlantic liner to publish a newspaper made up of wireless items was the American liner St. Paul.
It was 14 years ago while Mr. Marconi was crossing the Atlantic on that vessel that he personally directed the issuing of the first number of the Transatlantic Times, the first wireless newspaper published at sea. Such publications now include the Daily Bulletin of the Cunard line, the Atlantic Tagblatt of the Hamburg-American and the Ocean Times of the White Star line. On the Pacific the steamers running to Alaska the Wireless Herald is published. The stations at Goldfish and Cape Cod furnish most of the wireless news received on board the transatlantic liners in regard to what is going on on shore.

SURELY MAN OF SUBSTANCE

Russian Brought With Him the Gold to Satisfy British Immigration Authorities.

A Russian who traveled to London from the Tyndside to get a new law out of the clutches of the immigration authorities turned out to be a sort of gold mine.

The man is a millionaire. To prove that the boy had means of substance he had filled his pockets with sovereigns. The uncle declared a trick had been played on the lad. Although he (the uncle) had bought him a ticket, the boy was added to buy another ticket, some ticket seller abroad having persuaded him that the one which his uncle had sent him was not available.

"It has cost me another $50 to bring the boy to London," said the uncle.

He added that he wanted to bring up the boy as his own. He drew from a pocket two handfuls of sovereigns to show that he was able to do this.

Said the chairman, smiling: "You are a wealthy man, but you had better look after your money." The uncle produced more gold from another pocket. "I've had to work hard for this," he said, and was about to reveal more wealth when the court told him that a boy with such a generous protector would, of course, be admitted.

PROVES STRENGTH OF HEART

Infallible Test, According to Prominent Physician, Is the Ability to Hold the Breath.

Dr. W. A. Schtange, in a recent number of the Russian Vatch, explains why a healthy person can suspend breathing for from thirty to forty seconds, or, with practice, for three times as long. This depends, the doctor asserts, not on the lung capacity but upon the vigor of the heart muscle. In a word the longer you can hold your breath the greater is your heart power, persons with weak hearts being unable to suspend their breathing for more than twenty or even ten seconds.

Doctor Schtange, who is a surgeon of note, tests his patients in this novel way before giving them a general anesthetic, such as ether or chloroform. Seated in a chair, the patient is instructed to take a deep inspiration and, with the mouth closed, to hold his breath as long as he can. The longer he can hold it the less danger will there be from the anesthetic, and should he not be able to suspend his breathing for as long as twenty seconds, the anesthetic is, as the doctor says, "contra-indicated."

May Lower Price of Radium.

Contracts for delivery of radium in the early months of 1915 have been entered into at a price as low as $67.50 a milligram, and there is a widely prevalent belief that there may be a great fall in the price during the next two years. It is interesting to note that for some time after its discovery radium could be procured at less than one-tenth of its present price. The demand for radium to be used for medical purposes has hitherto absorbed the output, and has led to rates being quoted which are excessive and altogether artificial. The large profits obtained have, however, stimulated search for uranium ores in various countries, notably in America, and as there are unlimited quantities of low grade uranium rocks available it would appear to be merely a question of time before radium will be placed on the market at a price bearing a reasonable ratio to the cost of its production.

Duly Explained.

Sir George Reid, the genial high commissioner for the Australian commonwealth, who has just returned from a visit to Australia, is enormously popular "down under."

When he was made a knight commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George the people of Australia, who had known him as plain George Reid, worried him a good deal about his new dignity.

At one of his meetings a heckler called out, sarcastically:

"Say, Sir George, what does 'K. C. M. G.' mean?"

Without a moment's hesitation the new K. C. M. G. replied:

"Keep calling me George."

Must Show Weight or Volume.

Manufacturers and packers of foods sold in packages and bottles will be required, after September 3, 1914, to show on the wrapper or label the net weight or volume of the contents, as a result of an order recently issued by the United States department of agriculture. In the case of some classes of articles the contents must be stated by numerical count where this method gives accurate information as to the quantity of food in the package. The figures given on the label must represent the actual quantity of food, exclusive of wrappings and containers.

THIS BUSY WEEK IN COURT; PLEAS WIN SENTENCES

Marianna Man Confesses He Stole $250 Turkey and Gets 30 Days to Jail

Criminal court opened Monday for the second week. About 70 cases are listed for trial this week. The latter part of the week there is an unusually large number of cases to be heard. In order to clean up the list three courts will be held beginning with Wednesday morning. Judge James Ingraham, of Greene county, will sit in court room No. 2. Sheriff Lutton was directed to summon 24 additional jurors to be present on Wednesday.

Alonso Foral and wife, of Marianna, charged by Joe Monio, with selling liquor without a license were acquitted, the cost being put on Monio.

Andy Holowitz, indicted on several charges for trial Monday, entered a plea of guilty. He was given a sentence of a fine of $1 and costs and six months in the work house in each case to run concurrently. The prosecution arose out of trouble that occurred at a speakeasy at Hazelkirk. The night started over a discussion of the European war. Holowitz is an Austrian and the men with whom he had the trouble are Russians. In the night John Bobiak was cut with a knife, but not seriously, so a plea of simple assault and battery was accepted. In the second fight outside John and Mike Savchek were shot, but not dangerously wounded. On this plea of aggravated assault and battery was accepted. Holowitz has been in this country less than a year.

Jack Welch, of Marianna, admitted he took one turkey, worth $2.50, belonging to Lewis Gayman. A man named McIntyre is in jail, charged with being implicated in the crime. Welch says McIntyre had nothing to do with the stealing of the turkey and did not know it was stolen. He said he took the turkey to McIntyre's house where he expected to have it roasted, but was arrested before the dinner was served. He was sentenced to pay the costs, a fine of $1 and spend 30 days in jail.

Louis Beigel, of Pittsburg was a visitor in Charleroi Monday.

COMMUNITY CLUB MEN ASSEMBLE AT DU BOIS BANQUET

Nearly 30 men interested in the Community Club movement, which had its inception in Charleroi, gathered last Friday night in the dining room of the New Logan hotel at Du Bois, according to the Punxsutawney Spirit, at a Civic Leaders rally and supper, the object being to plant a Community Club idea in that city. Second Vice President Charles D. Reed, of the State Council of Community Clubs, presided as toastmaster, and Charles O. Frye, of Charleroi, the secretary of the State Council of Community Clubs and organizer of Community Clubs was present as a speaker.

Among the speakers was W. N. Conrad, Esq., of Brookville, who in his concluding remarks paid a sincere tribute to Mr. Frye, stating that but few men would have the moral to undertake the work Mr. Frye has and stick to it with the unwavering faith which he has exhibited.

"Realizing an Ideal" was the toast given by Mr. Frye, who described the work of organization among Community Clubs of Pennsylvania.

Dr. John T. Holdsworth, dean of the school of economics of the University of Pittsburg and a member of the educational committee of the State Council of Community Clubs, was one of the chief speakers of the evening.

Dean Holdsworth and Mr. Frye remained in Du Bois to effect the organization of a Community Club if possible.

WARNING ISSUED BY STATE BOARD ON HOOF DISEASE

The prevalence of the foot and mouth disease as reported among cattle in various sections of Pennsylvania may effect the dairy herds. Should these become infected there is a danger of the transference of the disease from the infected animals to human beings through the milk.

As the records in this state show this possibility Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, commissioner of health, has issued the following warning:

"The foot and mouth disease which is known to the medical world as aphthous fever is highly infectious in cattle and manifests itself by rising temperature and the appearance of blisters on the mucus membrane of the mouth, tongue and nose. The blisters are followed by ulcers; digestive disturbances are also common. Death seldom occurs in human beings.

"As a matter of protection against the possibility of infection the use of raw milk may be discontinued. A safety factor is to pasteurize the milk. Following is a simple method which may be used.

"Place a saucer in a pail seven or eight inches in diameter and about the same height. Set the milk bottle on this. Remove the paper cap from the milk bottle. Pour in the pail a sufficient quantity of luke warm water to half cover the bottle. Watch the water and as soon as it has boiled twenty minutes, remove the bottle of milk and allow it to cool slowly.

Never place the milk immediately upon the ice or the bottle may break. Seal the bottle with a new cap, a supply of which you can obtain from the milk man, and place the milk bottle where it will remain at a temperature of 40 to 50 degrees temperature. It must be kept cool and clean if it is to remain safe for use.

If the milk supply is not received bottled secure a bottle of the same size and cork after sterilization."

INSANE ASYLUM MATTER MAY BE CAUSE OF BREACH

Reported That County Commissioners and Poor Board Will Play Quits

The action of the poor board in withdrawing its approval of the proposition to purchase the Trinity hall property as a site for an asylum for the care of the indigent insane in the county, resulting in the matter being dropped, has evidently caused a breach between the commissioners and the poor board. They will probably hereafter work apart. Thomas Hill, president of the board of commissioners, has informed Superintendent John McNary of the county home, that the commissioners will have nothing to do with the matter.

Those interested in the proposition to secure Trinity hall severely criticized the poor board for withdrawing their approval. Others commend them for their action, believing that they did the proper thing.

CONGRESSIONAL APPORTIONMENT CAUSES WONDER

Some decidedly interesting political situations in this part of the state are likely to be the result of the new apportionment of congressional districts at the next session of the legislature. One of the counties which will be most directly affected in this reapportionment is Washington, according to the Washington Observer.

No apportionment has been made since 1901 when the state was divided into 32 districts. The act of August 8, 1911, gave to Pennsylvania four additional congressmen but as no new apportionment had been made it was necessary to elect these congressmen at large. Under the proposed new apportionment into 36 congressional districts it is understood Philadelphia and Allegheny counties will be divided. In Philadelphia the congressman at large, just elected is John R. K. Scott, and in Pittsburg Mahlon M. Garland. The other two named at the recent election who will be considered in the re-appointment of districts are Daniel Lefane, of York, and Thos. S. Crago, of Greene county and it is in regard to Crago that the people hereabouts are interested.

Crago whose home is in Waynesburg is a Republican. He lives in Greene county, a county which is normally 1,500 to 2,000 Democratic and which has polled as high as 6,000 votes in a general election. At present Greene county forms a part of the congressional district including Greene, Fayette, Somerset, Fayette, has in Hopwood, a Republican congressman.

Greene county on two sides is bordered by West Virginia and its two sides in Pennsylvania adjoin Fayette and Washington counties. Hence it is generally considered that Washington county must figure in the new apportionment which must include Democratic Greene and its Republican congressman.

The ratio for a congressional district is 210,000 population. Greene has 23,000 and Washington county has 143,000. These 171,000 are not enough for a full district.

Beaver county might be added to the Washington-Greene combination with its 78,000 population, bringing the figures up above the ratio.

Under such an arrangement the present 24th congressional district would be badly disrupted for the only county left would be Lawrence with something under 50,000 population. Of course Westmoreland county would be set up as a congressional district by itself and Butler county sliced off it and added to Lawrence. But among the leaders it is believed objections would be raised.

The whole situation is an unusually interesting one and political observers are anxiously awaiting the outcome.

SIXTEEN STATES ARE NOW UNDER QUARANTINE

Connecticut and Montana were quarantined Monday by the department of agriculture because of the spread of the "foot and mouth" disease to sections of those states, making 16 states in all under quarantine.

Lime Starvation

Causes Tuberculosis

The Medical Record (New York) of December 15, 1909, contains an article on "The Treatment of Pulmonary Tuberculosis, Based on the Assumption That the Dietetic Cause of the Disease is Lime Starvation," by Dr. John P. Russell, who says: "The condition which is recognized as preceding the active development of tuberculosis in the adult may be considered as due to lime starvation."

Years of widespread use confirm us in the belief that the success of Eckman's Alternative in cases of pulmonary tuberculosis (consumption) and chronic throat and bronchial troubles is due in large measure to its content of lime, so combined with other ingredients as to be easily appropriated by the cells.

As it contains no opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs, it is safe to try. Your druggist will order it for you or you can send direct to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia.

LONG RECORDS OF SERVICE

English Firm Has Fifty Workpeople Who Have Been in Their Employ More Than Fifty Years.

It is hard for Canadians, born and bred in a country where opportunity and incentive to change are almost ever present, to realize completely the conditions that obtain in older countries where employment is not so plentiful that a man can afford to leave a firm with which he has secured a position, remarks the Winnipeg Tribune. Some knowledge of the situation may be gained, however, from the facts contained in a letter sent to the London Mail by the manager of a famous biscuit firm. The letter dealing with the periods of employment of the various members of the staff says:

"We have on our books 50 workpeople who have each completed more than fifty years of continuous employment with us, as follows:

"One over 60 years, eight over 57 years, two over 55 years, 13 over 54 years, 15 over 51 years, two over 50 years. Total, 56.

"Of our clerical staff:

"One man has completed 53 years with us.

"One man has completed 51 years with us.

"One man has completed 53 years with us.

"Among our factory workpeople and our clerical staff combined we have exactly 1,000 men who have each completed at least 20 years' continuous service with us. They range from 20 to nearly 50 years of service."

Modern Maid, in All Essentials, is a Worthy Copy of Her Mother and Grandmother.

Every now and again somebody asks, in print, this question: "What has become of the old-fashioned girl that helped her mother wash the dishes?" Probably the same question has been asked since the time of Noah and will be asked until the end.

Mary Lyon, when she provided for the establishment of Mount Holyoke college for girls, stipulated that all the household work in it should be done by the students. That rule was enforced rigidly up to a recent date, when the directors and faculty, feeling that the practice might have become outworn, made the domestic tasks of the institution optional for the undergraduates.

But when the girls of Mount Holyoke were requested to announce their wishes on the subject, 748 of the 800 elected to continue in the tasks of sweeping corridors, washing dishes, setting tables and making up beds.

There is no need to worry about the American girl, even if she does wear gowns the sight of which seems to preclude all idea of work on her part. She isn't saying much about it but she is in all essentials the same kind of girl our mothers and grandmothers were.

How to Kill Flies.

To clear rooms of flies carbolic acid may be used as follows: Heat a shovel or any similar article and drop thereon twenty drops of carbolic acid. The vapor kills the flies.

A cheap and perfectly reliable fly poison, one which is not dangerous to human life, is bichromate of potash in solution. Dissolve one dram, which can be bought at any drug store, in two ounces of water, and add a little sugar. Put some of this solution in shallow dishes and distribute them about the house.

Sticky flypaper, traps and liquid poisons are among the things to use in killing flies, but the latest, cheapest and best is a solution of formalin or formaldehyde in water. A spoonful of this liquid put into a quart of a pan of water and exposed in the room will be enough to kill all the flies.

To clear the room quickly where there are many flies, burn pyrethrum powder in the room. This stupefies the flies, when they may be swept up and killed.

If there are any flies in the dining-room of your hotel, restaurant or boarding house, complain to the proprietor that the premises are not clean.

Bobcat Pays for Licence.

James Fenne, a bobcat hunter from London, thirty miles south-west of Eugene, brought to Eugene a bobcat pelt and a bride.

He exchanged the bobcat for a marriage licence and exchanged the licence for a wife. He returned with a wife to surprise his friends at London.

The bounty on bobcats is only $2, and the cost of the marriage licence is $1, so Fenne had to know in $1 he had to effect the exchange in the county clerk's office, but he will get the dollar back by filing a claim with the secretary of state for his special state bounty—Eugene (Ore.) dispatch to Portland Oregonian.

Rest Rooms Out of Date.

"Have you a rest room in your establishment?" "We used to have them in the old days," said the manager of the department store, "but there has been no demand for such things for many months. We have turned all our rest rooms into tango parlors."

Filial Solicitude.

"Mr. Smith, are water wagons very light?"

"I don't know, Tommy. Why do you want to know?"

"Cause my papa fell off one last night and got a black eye."

As a Principle of Gravity.

Newton discovered the principle of gravity, he could not undertake to explain what a mysterious force is. Modern physicists are inclined to think that his nature is electrical. But Dr. John Mills, in a letter to Science, states the problem that is of chief concern to thinkers, as follows:

"Neither a quest for an explanation of the cause of natural gravity, on the one hand, nor a mere logical acceptance of the fact as a matter of belief or blind faith, on the other, but the evolutionary development in the minds of men of a scientific satisfaction not only with not knowing, but with not ever being able to find out any rational and consistent theory or explanation for the attractive influence among all portions of matter which is called gravity and which is the essential, universal, and unalterable attribute of all material things whatsoever. Obviously, such a conception involves rather more of philosophy and psychology than of so-called physical science."

Poor Quality.

"An' you were at MacDougal's last night—what kind o' main is he?"

"Leebal w' his whisky—but the quality o' it's that indecent I verra near left some!"

SPOILED BY LIFE IN EAST

Uncle Sam's Army Officers and Survivors Miss Native Servants When They Return Home.

One of the members of the staff of army officers who has just been released from duty on the Pacific coast, said: "The other day to an aspect of life on the eastern coast has received the attention of this country."

I was born in the East, and I can just remember the perfect servants that my father had when I was a boy. I was too young to remember much about the conditions that prevailed on the big plantations before the civil war, but through my parents and most of their neighbors were turned by it and had to recall their establishments, the negroes who stayed in service retained the tradition of antebellum days for many years after the war.

When I left my home it was to come face to face with the servant problem as it is known only in the North. I had forgotten that there was such a thing as a cheerful, competent servant who did not feel above his work, and a kind Providence sent me to the isthmus. A Jamaican negro whom I employed as a man of all work about my quarters showed me depths of domestic contentment that I never dreamed existed.

"That man, I am certain, stayed awake nights to think up little attentions with which to surprise me. I never returned from a hard day on the canal so hot and tired that Christy did not succeed after a few minutes in nursing me into a good humor. The amazing thing about him, as about all good servants, was the perfect tact he displayed. His knowledge of my moods was almost uncanny, and seemingly he took a delight in anticipating the vagaries of my temper. Sometimes I thought he regarded it as a sort of game in which he matched his powers of pleasing against my bad disposition."

"Old naval officers tell of a man well known in Japan some years ago, who after 30 years spent on the other side of the Pacific, decided to revisit his native land. For months before his visit friends in this country received letters from him full of anticipation of good times. At last a letter gave the date of his arrival. The newspapers reported that his ship had made port, but the expatriate didn't turn up to greet his expectant friends. Instead one of his acquaintances got this note:

"Dear Jim: I arrived today, but I'm going right back. I'm hanged. I'll stay in a country where a man has to put in his own shirt studs."

"That tale may seem extreme to a person who has never known the luxury of life in countries where servants are plentiful, but since I have been to Panama and the Philippines I have come to have much the same attitude. It is a terrible jolt for an army lieutenant who has been living like a lord and saving money on his pay in the tropics to wake up to face debt and a hall bedroom in New York."

Old Custom Upheld by Law.

The quaint custom of "downing tools" when a fatality occurs in a pit prevails at the New Moss colliery, Ashton-under-Lyne, as at other places in the English coal fields. Not long ago a miner met with an accident, and a rumor spread among the men that he had been killed. Some 10 or 40 men in the shaft ceased work, and the next day 200 failed to go to work with the result that the colliery was stopped. With a view to stopping the custom the 200 men and youths were summoned for leaving work without giving notice. In this case the man was not dead, and damages were claimed for the stoppage of coal getting. The men marched in procession to the court, singing all the way, and were received in front of the court house by a large crowd of several thousands. After a hearing occupying five hours the bench dismissed all the cases on the ground that the men had proved the custom. The result was received with cheering in the court, and the defendants were demonstratively received by the large crowd on emerging.

Tabernacle Meetings at Bentleyville.

Fine crowds are greeting Evangelists Giles and Mohr in the tabernacle here. Even at this early date the building, a structure capable of holding 1,200, is well-filled. Already the evangelists have made a strong impression on those attending. Prayer meetings have been conducted at various homes in Bentleyville for the past two weeks and will continue to be conducted at different homes on Tuesdays and Fridays at 9:30 o'clock. Preaching services are held at the tabernacle every night excepting Monday night at 7:30. Ray Mohr, the singer and his chorus will feature every meeting. Mohr is a man with a wonderful delivery. Dr. Giles is at his best and will deliver some "rich" sermons during the services. His first sermon, "An Appeal to the Christians," immediately placed him master of the situation. A special invitation has been extended to the various church denominations to aid in this work.

ADAMSON AND ROBINSON EIGHT SIX ROUND DRAW

Wassville and Pittsburg Battlers Engage in Good Bout at Rink—Preliminaries Interesting—One Knockout is Recorded.

Wass Adams of Brownsville and Robinson of Pittsburg in the of an entertaining boxing show the skating rink Monday night right as pretty a six round draw as one could desire. Perhaps—just perhaps—Adams had a shade the of the mill, but not enough to for any sort of a decision.

Both Adams and Robinson took easy in the first round but after both were on their toes and there was something doing every-minute. Adams done some great im-ting. Good punches were frequently exchanged. At the finish the fight was hard, with each taking considerable punishment. The fight Adams' first in about eight months.

In the first round of the show it appeared there was to be a repetition of how a few weeks ago when in four rounds there were four knockouts. But the first bout there were no knockouts. The first barely got started until Earl Regan of North Charlottesville went down for the count in a stiff punch from Mickey Veg-glove.

Billy Wimber of Fair Haven and Brennan of Pittsburg fought rounds to a draw, though Brennan seemed to have a slight advantage over Wimber. Brennan's im-ping was conspicuous.

In the semi final Young Jones of Monessen and Johnny Cooper of Mon-essen was called off on account of an injury that Cooper had sustained while at work. Buck Sebrle of Charlottesville substituted for Cooper and stood up under all the punishment that Jones was able to inflict for six good rounds.

Jack Mier of Monessen refereed all the bouts. Announcement was made of the next show to be held Saturday November 27, when Matt Gorman of Pittsburg will meet a good man who has not yet been selected. Bull Miller of Monessen will fight Bud Gregg of Castle Shannon in the final.

partment. Lavish appropriations in the face of creation of special funds from automobile licenses, hunters' licenses and escheats are also blamed for the low state of the finance.

As a matter of fact the general fund of the state treasury was lower on October 31 than it had been for 20 years or more.

Another matter which is causing concern at the capitol is the crowded condition of departments. The public service, highway and labor and industry departments are three which have offices in buildings outside of the capitol. Recently it was proposed to have the public service commission take some of the rooms of the internal affairs department but nothing came of the plan and when it was planned to take the whole labor and industry department outside of the capitol to give the highway department more room it was discovered that the appropriations authorized would not permit it.

The whole question of proper housing of departments and changes to suit demands of actual work will be taken up by the new economy and efficiency commission shortly.

CHRISTMAS SEALS TO BE SOLD BY ATHENE CLUB

sylvania Tuberculosis Society

Announcement is being made that the sale of Red Cross Christmas seals will this year be taken up through the Athene club, of which the president is Mrs. R. C. Mountser.
Mrs. Mountser will be assisted in the work by Mrs. V. P. Steward and Mrs. T. M. Faddis. The Red Cross Christmas Seal Campaign is recognized as one of the main instruments in the fight against tuberculosis, Pennsylvania's greatest enemy, because the proceeds from the sale go directly to the state wide crusade against the dread disease.

The seals sell at the usual price of one cent each, and will be on sale during December in the stores and public places of communities throughout the State, while thousands of local societies, schools and churches will promote the sale. Every seal sold is a bullet in the war against the great

DENIES ALLEGATIONS AFFIRMED BY HIS WIFE

Statement Made in Local Divorce Suit, And Answer is Made to Charges—Was Not a Case of Cruel Treatment He Says.

Oliver B. Michener in the divorce action filed against him by his wife, Marion McMichener of Charleroi, has filed an answer in her allegations.
Prior to the filing of a bill by the wife against her husband the husband had a suit in divorce pending against her. In her bill she charged her husband with cruel and barbarous treatment, not only in abusing her but the children. She also charged him with drunkenness.

In his answer Mr. Michener avers that the charges of his wife are false and untrue and wholly without foundation. He denies that he subjected his wife to cruel and barbarous treatment or rendered her condition intolerable and life burdensome. On the contrary he avers he withdrew from his home and family because of the adulterous conduct of his wife, the libellant in the action against him.
He avers that she is today occupying the home provided by him.

He denies that he ever struck her, called her vile names or treated her with disrespect and that if there was any disrespect shown her it was after he learned of her infidelity, to wit, September 1, 1915. Further he avers he has not drunk continuously and habitually, but on the contrary that he has been strictly sober and industrious for years and has not lost a single day's work. He avers that it is absolutely false that he had a revolver and threatened to kill his wife.
He admits he accused her of unfaith-fulness before he left her, but this was because he had absolute proof that his accusation was true.

He further denies that he was quarrelsome and especially denies that he practiced any cruelty on the children.
On the contrary he says he was never allowed to correct the children and they were taught by their mother to revere and respect him. He avers he was a good and true husband to the libellant, gave her all his money, but she would run bills and not use the money to pay them.

In answer to the rule on him for contrary has a good home and is libel filed by him against her, Mr.
Michener has filed an answer. He avers she is not in poor health and destitute circumstances, but on the contrary has a good home and is renting a portion of the house for $18 a month which she collects and which house he has furnished for renting purposes with his furniture.
He denies he makes $90 a month but on the contrary between $70 and $81 a month.

AFFIDAVIT OF DEFENSE FILED IN LOCAL CASE

In the suit of Samuel H. Dewalt for use of W. A. Marshall against Wesley Piper an affidavit of defense has been filed. The respondent, Wesley Piper of North Charleroi denies he purchased on or about September 7, 1910, nor at any other time any of the goods and wares and merchandise from Samuel Dewalt set forth in the plaintiff's claim. The defendant further denies that he erected or desired to erect a store room and flat on his ground in the borough of Finleyville, asset forth by the plaintiff; nor he avers, did the plaintiff furnish him with any lumber building material, etc.

Further denial is made of claims made against respondent. On the contrary the respondent admits that his married daughter Carrie Kissinger, owned a lot in Finleyville, upon which she erected a building, purchasing certain lumber and other supplies from the plaintiff. The defendant avers that all transactions in connection with the erection of the building were made in the name of Carrie Kissinger and that the plaintiff knew the defendant was simply assisting his daughter in erecting this building.

Why Vaccination Pays.

Statistics show that to vaccinate a person against smallpox at public expense costs about twenty-five cents, while the disease itself costs the public on an average about $50 per case.

Immune From Typhoid Fever.

Sir Frederick Treves, chief of the British army medical service, reports that up to January 24 there had been 25 deaths from typhoid among the British soldiers at the front. Of these 25, 34 had not been protected by anti-typhoid vaccination. The single case of death in a vaccinated man was of one who had received only the first dose.

Of 26,000 Australian troops receiving the protective inoculation, Surgeon General Williams reports: "Not one single case showed any after symptom which could be considered worthy of consideration. Not a man had to be taken off duty; drills and exercises proceeded as usual."

Dr. Osler on Tuberculosis

Sir William Osler, one of the foremost of living medical men, formerly of Johns Hopkins, Baltimore, and now Regius Professor of Medicine at Oxford, says in his "Article of Medicine" (1907), on page 219:
"The healing of pulmonary tuberculosis is shown clinically by the recovery of patients in whose spudic tissue and bronchi have been found."
In the granulations products and associated pneumonia a scar tissue is formed, while the smaller cavernous areas become impregnated with lime salts. To such conditions alone should the term healing be applied."

Many eminent medical authorities have testified to the efficacy of lime salts in the treatment of tuberculosis, and the success of Lankford's Alternative in this and other throat and bronchial affections must be due partly to the fact that it contains a lime salt in combination with other valuable ingredients, so that it can be easily absorbed.
